THE TECH-CLEMSON MEET.

Tiger Team Defeats Tech. Score 11 to 37. Capt. Furtick the Star.

Clemson's track team won an easy victory over Tech on the 18th of April. As the meet was Tech's first this season, their strength was not known. Last year, at the annual triangular meet of Emory, Georgia, and Tech, the Atlanta boys lost by only  $\frac{1}{4}$  of a point; and Clemson had every reason to expect a close, hard-fought meet.

As was the case at Athens, a heavy rain on the eve of the meet put the track in wretched condition. The inside of the course was ankle deep in mud, and Manager Emmerson moved the alleys for the running events to the outside, thus necessitating remeasuring the distances for all the events. Even with this change, much difficulty was experienced.

As usual, Capt. Furtick scored the greatest number of points, securing 23 in all. Warren came next with 14. Bailey did excellent work, although he was nosed out of the 100 yd. dash by inches. If either Ballew or Warren had not drawn the worst two alleys of the six, the dash would have been ours. Spratt was out of condition and lost the high jump, Goodier winning at 5 ft., while Spratt's record is 4 in. higher. Cannon's finish in the 440 was spectacular. In a whirlwind finish, he beat Davenport by 4 inches. Byrd ran a very plucky race in the half. He was pitted against the best half-miler in the South, and made him run his best to win. Harris surprised everyone by becoming an emergency man in the pole vault,

ERSKINE WINS IN SLOW GAME.

Tigers Lacked Their Usual Snap and Ginger. Moore Hard to Hit.

The weather was ideal; but it seemed that the Tigers could not get into the game with their usual vim. Clemson's infield, which is as swift as that of any Southern college, played good ball, but it was not up to its usual standard. Moore flung some pretty ball for Erskine, keeping his hits well scattered. We predict for him a bright future in the baseball world.

In the first inning Erskine did not get any runners on first. It was three up and three down. Then the Tigers came to the bat, and Ossie Bissell got his base on balls; Tite Bissell bunted and Ossie went to second. Next up was Lykes, our big and old reliable hit getter, who rapped the sphere to center field and went to second on fielder's error; Ossie scored.

The next two men up for Erskine failed to connect with Wanamaker's speedy balls, and the third man flew out to Robertson, who made a beautiful catch, falling his length but keeping the ball off the ground.

In the third inning Erskine began to use bunts, but failed to get a man beyond first. Tite led off for Clemson with a clean hit to center, but was thrown out trying to stretch it into a two bagger. In sliding to second he received a very bad bruise, but did not leave the game. Lykes also got another hit this inning.

Neither of the teams did much in the fourth inning; but, in the fifth, Erskine, by the use of well placed bunts, ran in two men. J. R.

THE GEORGIA-CLEMSON GAME.

Georgia Wins in Spectacular game by a Score of 2 to 0.

In one of the prettiest games ever witnessed on Bowman's field, our old and friendly rivals, the U. of Ga., defeated the Tigers by a score of 2 to 0. For Georgia, Foley was the star. He struck out four men, allowed only one hit, and gave one base on balls; one home run and one single are also credited to him. It was in the eighth inning that Brown swatted the ball past the center fielder for another home run. Although the Georgia boys continued to connect with Farmer's balls, they were unable to run in any more scores on account of the Tigers' fast field work.

It was in the first half of the seventh inning that excitement ran high, for Clemson's chances then looked slim. Georgia was at the bat; the first man up got to first on an error, the next man bunted and the first runner got to second on another error. Foley was next up and secured a single in left field, thus filling the bases, and no one out. The fourth man up bunted to Robertson, who threw the runner out at home. Farmer gave the next man two balls, then a strike, but the next one over was driven deep into left field, where it fell into "Pat" Wiley's hands. Two men out and bases full. The next and last man up bunted to Le Far Bissell, who threw the runner out second, thus making the third out and preventing the Georgians from scoring.

From here, the Georgia boys go on a "raid" through Virginia and Maryland, and with them go the wishes of the Clemson corps for a successful trip. W. P. S.

Big Tennis Tournament.

On May 16, 17, and 18, the Southern Inter-collegiate Tennis Tournament will be held in Atlanta, under the auspices of the Atlanta Athletic Club. From South Carolina, the following colleges have been invited to send representatives: Charleston, Wofford, Clemson, Erskine, Furman, Newberry, and Carolina. Each college may send as many representatives as it wishes. The entry list will close on May 1st; the entrance fee, which is $1.50 for the singles and $1 for the doubles, must be paid on or before that date.

This is the first year that an attempt has been made to hold such a meet in the South. The regular Southern championship series is, however, played in Atlanta each year.

Tigers Win From Clinton by Score of 8 to 0.

With the wind blowing almost a gale, Clemson defeated the Presbyterian boys last Friday, April 12th, to the tune of 8 to 0. Bailey was easy for the Tigers, who batted him at will, piling up a total of eight hits. "Sergeant" Wanamaker played like a leaguer in spite of the fact that it was the first game he has pitched. He struck out nine men and allowed no one to walk.

Winthrop's Junior Reception.

The reception given by the Junior class to the Senior class on the 15th, was one of the most brilliant functions of Winthrop's college year. The halls and parlors of the main building were beautifully decorated with class colors, palms, and ferns. All present had a delightful evening. The Senior class of Clemson were among the guests invited; but much to their regret, circumstances prevented their being present.

GEORGIA-CLEMSON GAME.

Clemson Wins from Georgia's Strong Team.

Clemson met Georgia in Athens on the 13th. It was the coldest, windiest and most disagreeable day on which the team has played this season. But notwithstanding this, the Tigers went at the University men with that determination which always wins. Every minute they were on the alert; they took advantage of every mis-play of their opponents. The base-running of the Tigers was excellent.

The treatment which the Clemson team received at the hands of the Georgians was model. At no other place and at no other time has our team received such a royal reception. The entire student body was most generous in its applause of every good play made by the visitors. But what else could be expected when two such old time friends meet.

Clemson was at the bat first and scored. O. H. Bissell walked, T. Bissell and Lee were out at first, while O. Bissell went to second. On a wild pitch, he went to third; from whence he scored on Lykes' single to left. In this inning, in almost the same way, Georgia scored. In the second, Clemson again scored. L. Bissell singled, Coles sacrificed and Farmer walked; on an error Bissell scored and Farmer went to third. O. Bissell singled and Farmer scored. Not satisfied with this, Clemson again crossed the plate in the third. Georgia did likewise. Score Clemson 5, Georgia 3. Again, in the seventh, Clemson circled the bases; and then repeated the performance in the ninth. Georgia came to the bat in the last half of the ninth; and it was in this inning that the weather certainly looked squally for Clemson. The first two men were "easy money" and there were two strikes on the third, when he singled, again there was a single and again a single with an error mixed in somewhere, and while all this was taking place, two men crossed the plate. The grandstand and bleachers went wild. Some one suggested bringing out the cannon to rattle the pitcher; but another said the Tigers were from a military school and declared that often Farmer had been a target for the heavy artillery situated at that place. With the bases full, the next batter grounded to Robertson, who forced McWhorter at second. Game over. Score: Clemson 7; Georgia 5.

For Georgia, Martin was easily the star, while Derrick on second did fine work. For Clemson there were no stars. Every man simply played good ball and did what was expected of him. Lafar and Ossie Bissell each got three hits out of four times up, while Barksdale tripled in the ninth. Farmer pitched a fine game.

College Baseball.

Newberry defeated Carolina in Columbia on the 12th. Score 5 to 2. The game was hard fought until the end. For Carolina, Davis, at short, was the bright star of the game, figuring in two double plays. Crouch was in the box for Newberry and pitched a good game. The whole team backed up with good work.

Erskine downed the Clinton team on the 13th with a score of 11 to 0.

Furman defeated the College of Charleston in a slow and uninteresting game by the score of 12 to 3. The cold weather took all the snap and ginger out of the players, and a poor game was the result.

On the 16th, the University of Carolina defeated Furman for the second time this season. The score was 5 to 2. Jones pitched a good game for Carolina, striking out 12 men. Edwards, for Furman, also pitched a good game, sending nine of Carolina's men back to the bench.

Wofford went down in defeat before the Erskine ball team on the 19th. The score was 3 to 2. Both teams did good work, making it a fine game. Features of the game were the fast work of Grier, Erskine's short stop, and the beautiful double play of Snapp, Wofford's pitcher.

The University of Georgia played Washington and Lee at Lexington, Va., on the 22d. The score resulted in Georgia's defeat by 1 to 0 in the 12th inning.

Erskine defeated Furman in Greenville on the 20th. Score 8 to 3.

CAROLINA-CLEMSON TRACK MEET.

Clemson Takes Every First Place. Score 96 to 12.

Promptly at 2:30 o'clock, Saturday, the track contest between Carolina and Clemson began. The weather was ideal; a light shower had fallen the night before and the track was in excellent condition. Every preparation for the meet had been made, and the events followed one another in quick succession. From the first, it was evident that Clemson would win, though no one anticipated such an overwhelming score. The Carolina boys soon found that they were outclassed by Clemson's fast and well-trained team; but, nevertheless, they put up a plucky fight from the start, and did not let up until the finish.

Clemson won the first place in every event, and the second in all save two, in one of which a tie for second place was declared. Those who were especial stars for Clemson were: Furtick and Warren, each of whom netted 18 points. They each won three firsts and a second. Big Fleming evoked much applause by throwing the 16-pound hammer 109 feet. Spratt, for Clemson, also deserves mention, having won in good style two firsts.

For Carolina, Jones scored the most points. It was in the distance events that it was expected the Carolinians would show up strongest, but, from want of persistent training, perhaps, they lacked endurance. The pace set by Clemson's distance runners was too fast for them.

Manager Taylor, by farsightedness and attention to his team, has won for himself the commendation of the entire track team.

Social Events of the Week.

For the past week the ladies of the "Hill" have been vieing with each other in giving receptions in honor of the bride-to-be, Miss Julia Moore. Following is a brief review of the social events of the week:

The festive occasions in honor of the bridal party began with a handkerchief shower given by Mrs. M. E. Rudd, at the Clemson Club Hotel, on Wednesday, the 17th. The reception rooms were beautifully decorated with red hearts. Each guest brought a dainty hand-worked handkerchief. These were collected in a Japanese parasol, raised to the center of the parlor ceiling, from where they were showered upon the bride-elect. A floral contest, in which Miss Leslie Strode was the winner, added much pleasure to the evening.

On Thursday, 18th. Mrs. W. M. Riggs entertained the ladies' Thursday Club in honor of her guests, Mrs. N. H. Gwynn and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Gwynn, of Lenoir, N. C., Mrs. J. W. Willis of Rock Hill, Mrs. M. V. Moore and Miss Julia Moore. Some lessons in the art of scientific button-hole working furnished pleasant diversion for the guests, as well as valuable information to the bride-to-be.

On Friday afternoon, 19th, the gay and festive party retreated to the home of Mrs. D. W. Daniel. Misses Floride Calhoun and Katherine Furman were found at the punch bowl, and Mrs. F. S. Shiver at the piano; Miss Rosa Calhoun, Mrs. J. W. Willis, Mrs. R. N. Brackett, Mrs. J. H. Hook, Mrs. J. N. Harper, and Mrs. W. M. Riggs furnished music. While Mrs. W. M. Riggs and Mrs. Rudd were serving refreshments, Miss Floride was at the piano; Mrs. Dr. Klein was much at home in one of her favorite readings. The evening closed by each guest's writing a toast to the bride elect.

Mrs. C. D. Clay gave a luncheon to the bridal party, Saturday, April 20th.

Mrs. F. H. H. Calhoun entertained in honor of the bridal party, Monday afternoon, April 22d, from four to six. Each lady was asked to write her favorite receipt; these were neatly bound in a beautifully hand-painted book and presented to the bride. During the afternoon, ices were served.

Tuesday morning, Mrs. J. N. Harper entertained at a card party in honor of Miss Lona Tillman.

Mrs. P. H. Mell gave a very pleasant "at home" Tuesday afternoon from four to six, in honor of Mrs. Thatch. The guests were met by Mrs. D. W. Daniel, and passed next to the receiving party; here Mrs. Mell and Mrs. Thatch were assisted by the bridal party. Mrs. Dargan and Mrs. Shanklin presided at the punch bowl, while Mrs. Redfearn and Mrs. Harper, assisted by the Misses Morrison, served ices and sweets. The elegant home of the President was beautifully decorated with apple blossoms, ferns, and wild flowers. The drapings from the chandelier were artistic; here Cupid found a pleasant resort as among the wild-wood

The social events of the week were happily terminated on Wednesday evening, April 24th, by the marriage of Miss Julia Moore to Mr. Harry Howell Smith, of Richmond, Va., at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. M. Riggs, at six o'clock. Rev. Mr. Willis, of Rock Hill, brother-in-law of the bride, performed the ceremony. Only the immediate friends of the contracting parties were present. At half past six Mrs. Riggs gave a very elaborate reception, at which the College band rendered some very fine selections. The bride has been very popular in Clemson College society, and has many friends among the cadets, who, one and all, join in wishing her a long, happy, and prosperous life.

Marriage of Interest.

Our efficient and popular book-keeper, Mr. Ben C. Hard, was married to Miss Janie Gantt, Wednesday afternoon, April 24, at half past six o'clock. The ceremony was performed in the Presbyterian church of Pendleton, Rev. Mr. H. Mills, of Clemson, officiating. Mr. Hard's brother, of Charleston, was best man, and Miss _____ was dame of honor, and Miss _____ was maid of honor. The bride was accompanied by twelve attendants, while four of the groom's friends were acting ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Hard left on the evening train for points North. They will be at home to their friends after May 15th, at the residence of Prof. J. N. Harper.

Association of Colleges.

On Tuesday of last week an important meeting of the Association of Colleges was held in Greenville.

The visiting delegates were entertained by Furman University. The following topics constituted the course of discussion:

1. "How Can the Colleges of the State Best Aid the Present High School Movement?"
2. "What Should be the Policy of Our Colleges in the Matter of Coeducation?"
3. "Would it be Advisable to Enlarge the Association into an Association of Colleges and High School?"
4. "What Should be the Attitude to Intercollegiate Athletics—especially Football?"

The following Colleges are members of the association: University of South Carolina, Clemson, Furman, Wofford, Erskine, Presbyterian College of South Carolina, Citadel, and Newberry.

Such association work can but redound to united and more successful endeavor for higher education in South Carolina.

Editorials.

To see the beautiful cup, which Prof. Calhoun has offered to the class winning the largest number of points in the Field Day contest on May the first, is to want it. This is evidenced by the numbers who are on the cinder path every afternoon. Each class has elected a captain, in order that systematic and effective training may be secured. By the 30th, teams will be in readiness to make the contest fast, close, and exciting.

Clemson's athletic record, thus far, this season has not been all victories, nor did we expect it to be so. The Tiger schedule has been one of contests with sturdy opponents, with men who have been trained in the finer points of the game, and who have been taught speed, accuracy, and decision; consequently, the games have been full of energy and snap; and, at times, they were marked by brilliancy. The Tiger team has done good work, and it has received unanimous support. It has received no knocking. When it has been defeated, it was only after a hard fight and against a worthy foe. The record is not, however, one of defeats only. We are not by any means trying to console ourselves.

The Tigers have taken a good share of the spoil, and Clemsonians are satisfied—to a degree.

It is not six weeks now until Clemson closes. Some seventy seniors will then again become freshman; this time in a larger college—the world. These men who have worked together, who have associated, one with another, (and who oftentimes trifled together), have come to feel a strong attachment for one another. As the time of separation approaches, our minds linger longer on our fellows, and ties grow stronger even than they were. But soon we shall separate never again to be assembled. Some will go back to the old home on the farm or in the city, there to take up a man's work. Others will strike far out in search of opportunity and success. Already some are dreaming of prowess in far away states. But no matter how far afield '07 men may go, they will take with them, as all Clemson men do, a love and a pride in their Alma Mater.

'07 Interests.

Among Seniors, now, the all absorbing question is, "Where are you going to work?" and such it will continue to be, until all have chosen places—or have had places chosen for them. Some of our members will enter farming, some will go into U. S. Government service, while others will take positions with engineering and construction companies. We are just beginning to realize how widely our class will be scattered before two more months are gone: the openings offered varying in location from Massachusetts to the City of Mexico.

As a class just about to graduate, we should wish to accomplish as much as possible in order to keep our College from too soon forgetting us. Why not, then, win the Field Day Trophy Cup, and have that placed to our credit? Our class can claim twenty-three of the points won in the Meet with Tech. two weeks ago; yet twenty-three points are not enough to win a meet, as some fifty-five are necessary to make a majority. There is no reason why we should not have enough men to bring in those additional points. The time left us is very short, so the training from now until May 1st should indeed be hard and earnest.

The Junior Show.

On Tuesday evening, April 30th, just preceding the Junior dance, the management of the '08 annual presents one of the strongest amateur plays that has been seen here for several years.

Mr. George Warren, who takes the leading part, promises to be quite a success in light comedy work, for which he is so well adapted. He is strongly supported by Mrs. Lee, whose work has always been the very best.

The story treats of a youth, Sammy Gilder, who is desperately in love with Sadie, the ward of a very irascible old Colonel. The Colonel is heartily opposed to Sam's suit, and wishes Sadie to marry a rich New York banker. The Colonel and the banker come to an agreement; the banker is to come to press his suit on a certain day. None of the party concerned has ever met him, and upon his arrival he is in turn mistaken for a lawyer, doctor, preacher, prize-fighter, actor, and coachman. Sam finally induces Margin to propose to Sadie by a note. He is to deliver the note, but instead of giving it to Sadie, gives it to the Colonel's sister, an old maid about 45 years old. This mixes things up in general, and finally terminates in Sam's marrying Sadie and Moses marrying Aunt Sadie.

The specialties of this production promise to be as good as have ever been produced here by an amateur company.

For More Patriotic South Carolina.

There is no one in the State who is doing more to create a deeper interest in state history and to make South Carolinians proud of South Carolina than Col. John J. Dargan.

He recently delivered an excellent address in the auditorium of the College for Women, Columbia, upon the life of the great Carolinian, John C. Calhoun. Those who heard Col. Dargan's lecture could not fail to feel a just pride in their mother state, which state has ever played an eventful part in history, ever impressing her individuality, self-reliance and heroic endeavor.

Class and Society News.

SOPHOMORE CLASS.

As usual, the Sophomore Class was "Johnny on the Spot" in the Clemson-Tech track meet, which took place a week ago. We had four men on the team, and they all did well. A. L. Harris took two thirds: one in the pole vault, and the other in the half-mile. B. F. Ballew captured three seconds, in the 100-yard dash, the quarter-mile, and the 220-yard race. L. Gardner also won third in the low hurdles. This is a good showing for our class, and we are glad to see our men taking such a prominent part in athletics. There are others among us who, while they did not make the Atlanta trip, are doing good on the track team, and are improving daily.

Several of our boys are in the Y. M. C. A. work, and hold responsible positions in this association. Among these are, J. C. Pridmore, who is secretary; J. O. Graham, assistant organist; and Ballew, Tarbox, Baldwin, and L. Gardner, all of whom are on important committees. This is a good work, as we all realize, and should be encouraged by everybody. Besides these, a great many of our boys are leading Bible classes.

Field Day, the first of next month, will be an important date this year, as Prof. Calhoun has offered medals for the winners in the different events. This is an entirely new departure, for formerly the prizes were rather insignificant. We have a large class and hope to win our share of these prizes. Our class played to hard luck in football, and we should certainly try to redeem ourselves on this day. We expect to do so, but will not make any rash promises.

H. C. Twiggs, J. P. McMillan, L. P. Byars, C. P. Roberts, W. L. Nance, and R. E. Blake, are some of the sophomores who attended the State Oratorical Contest at Greenwood, last week. They also went prepared to see the ball game, and to "root" for Clemson.

The President of our class was very pleasantly surprised a few nights since by a vocal serenade, in which the following took part: J. P. McMillan, "Good Old U. S.

A.;" H. C. Twiggs, "Makes no difference what he bats with;" T. H. Yeargin, "Holy City;" J. C. Reid, "I'm crazy about you;" M. R. Hirsch, "So long, Mary;" L. P. Byars, "Do you think you could like me;" T. B. Reaves, "Tessie." All together, "Hosanna in the Highest." In Wolfe's opinion these boys are talented, and all their voices need is cultivation.

THE CALHOUN SOCIETY.

At a recent meeting, the society decided to hold a mock trial on May 3d. Mr. A. C. Young will be tried on the charge of stealing Professor Houston's chickens; or at least being implicated in their disappearance. It is the general opinion that Mr. Young is guilty, as he displayed extensive knowledge of the back yard topography of Prof. Houston's place, when the matter was brought up in society. However, he has engaged for his defense one of the shrewdest lawyers of the State, Mr. S. H. Sherard, of Ninety-Six; and it is certain that Mr. Quattlebaum, for the people, will have difficulty in convicting his man.

It has been rumored that the defense will put up a plea of insanity; but the truth of this cannot at present be vouched for, although, if it should be attempted, little difficulty should be encountered.

The trial will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, and everyone on the Hill is cordially invited to be present.

The society adopted a standard pin, a few weeks ago, of substantially the same design as previously described in these columns; namely, the bust of Calhoun on a gold shield with a blue enamel band, with the letters, C. L. S., above. It is a very neat pin, and most of the members have ordered them. Any graduate desiring information on this subject may get same by writing to W. L. Schachte, chairman of the committee.

FRESHMAN CLASS.

The last time we freshmen were seen in "The Tiger," we felt that our class would be well represented on the different athletic teams of Clemson. We are now glad to say that we have some men on both the base ball and the track teams, who are not only winning honors for themselves, but who make each of their classmates proud to say, "He is a freshman."

Perhaps the man who deserves the first mention is "Rat" Farmer. He is easily one of the best, pitchers of our already-famous 'varsity team, if not the best. In the very first game of the season, he succeeded in holding his opponents down to only two hits. In no game has a team got more than seven hits, and these are always kept well scattered. "Doc" McFadden, our president, was putting up a fine game in the left garden the first of the season; but "Doc" was ruled out because of too much summer ball, and will not be able to play any more this year. McFadden was, undoubtedly, a big loss to our team; and everyone is sorry he had to stop playing ball. He was one of our best players last year, and was doing good work for us this season.

A few days ago, we had a class meeting, for the purpose of asking all our men to go out on the track, and try for the prizes which Doctor Calhoun has offered for the Field's Day exercises. We hope to win the relay race, as we have a very large number on our roll, and should be able to make a good show. This is the first time that a cup has been given for this race, and it will be quite an honor for the class that wins it. Let everybody come out, and do his best for our class.

JUNIOR CLASS NOTES.

A very enjoyable practice dance was given in the gymnasium dance hall by the Junior Dancing Club, Saturday evening, April thirteenth. One figure of the german was danced, while waltzes and two-steps occupied the remainder of the evening. The music was furnished by the Cadet band, under the direction of instructor Peterson. The guests of the occasion were as follows: Miss Dora Smith, of Knoxville, Tenn.; Misses Lila and Alice Stribling, of Pendleton; Misses Tallulah and May Crowther, of Abbeville; Miss Bessie Rast, of Orangeburg; Misses Neila and Jean Sloan, Miss Margaret Doggett, Miss Katherine Furman, and Miss Connor, of Clemson.

Mrs. J. N. Harper, Mrs. R. E. Lee, and Mrs. W. C. Tucker acted as chaperones.

A number of the members of the class attended a dance in Anderson several days ago.

R. H. Fike and F. B. Wise visited friends in Toccoa, Ga., some time ago.

The Junior Dramatic Club is working hard to produce the best amateur play that has ever appeared here. The play will be given on the evening of April the thirtieth; the proceeds being for the benefit of the '08 Annual. "A Gilded Youth" is the title of the play. A specialty performance will be given by S. H. Sherard and J. D. Graham.

At the recent track meet with the University of Georgia, a number of points were scored by Junior men.

A former member of our class, Mr. L. H. Habernicht, of Fairfield, visited friends here some time ago.

The Junior Class has a "hankering" for the handsome cup which will be awarded by Professor Calhoun to the winning class team at the field day exercises on May first. We have some good material to select from, and we feel that we stand as good a chance of winning the cup as any other class.

The following invitations have been issued:

Y. M. C. A.

The Young Men's Christian Association has been requested to be on hand at the June encampment. Captain Clay has assured us that we shall have a tent. We are going and shall do what we can to add to the pleasure and enjoyment to camp life.

Mr. J. C. Pridmore, our recording secretary, has just sent in our annual report to the International Committee. The report shows more than 300 boys in Bible study.

We note where Georgia Tech has raised $250 toward the permanent conference loan fund, and expects to send fifteen delegates to the June conference. Watch the next issue of The Tiger and see what Clemson will do. We are not generally very far behind our spirited rival, nor do we expect to be this time.

The permanent conference loan fund is a necessity, if we are to meet our obligations next year.

The establishment of this fund is one of the most substantial moves the Association has ever made.

The Senior Dance.

The last Senior Dance for this year took place in Agricultural Hall on the evening of April 19th. This was one of the most pleasant affairs which the Class of '07 has ever given; no small part of its success being due to the excellent music furnished by the College Band under the direction of Sergt. N. B. Peterson, and to the delightful refreshments prepared by our never failing "Commissary General", A. Schilleter.

Among those present were Miss Willie Cherry, Seneca, with S. R. Perrin; Miss Ethel Sturkey, Walhalla, with F. M. Furtick; Miss Alice Maxwell, Anderson, with G. D. Curtis; Miss Neila Sloan, Clemson College, with R. A. Easterling; Miss Bessie Hunter, Pendleton, with L. S. Wolfe; Miss Helen Bradford, Clemson College, with H. C. Crum; Miss Alice Stribling, Pendleton, with T. D. Eason; Miss Leize Stribling, Pendleton, with F. B. Schirmer; Miss Bessie Rast, Orangeburg, with P. L. Howle; Miss Katherine Furman, Clemson College, with J. W. Keel; Miss Mary McGowan, Spartanburg, with L. Boggs; Miss Ella Sitton, Pendleton, with T. L. Bissell; Miss Tallulah Crowther, Abbeville, with J. S. Hughes; Miss Mae Crowther, Abbeville, with W. L. Stone; Miss Dora Smith, Knoxville, with H. Stevens.

Chaperones: Miss W. M. Riggs, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Gwynn, Mrs. W. C. Tucker, Mrs. M. E. Bradley, Mrs. J. N. Harper, Mrs. A. B. Bryan, Mrs. J. P. Lewis, Mrs. C. M. Furman, Mrs. F. S. Shiver, Mrs. R. E. Lee.

Stags: A. S. Heyward, W. P. Sloan, F. M. Stephenson, C. D. Pottinger, E. D. McCutchan, A. M. Klugh, J. B. Bailey, J. H.

The Y. M. C. A. Lawn Social.

The Clemson College Young Men's Christian Association afforded an evening of enjoyment to its members, and also to those members of the Bible classes who are not members of the Association, last Saturday evening, when it entertained them at a lawn social. There were quite a number of ladies from the college community and a number of visiting ladies present. The boys were present in a large majority, as is usually the case where we have so many boys and so few girls, but the latter always add a great deal to the pleasure of any social occasion.

The portion of the campus just to the rear of the Agricultural Hall was lighted up with electric lights and Japanese lanterns; and seats were placed around where a fellow, who had something very important to tell his especial friend, could take this friend and there be unmolested, except occasionally by some member of the reception committee.

"Shortie", the boys' friend and our noted steward, who is ever ready and equal to the occasion, was with us, and served delicious refreshments.

The Clemson College band was present, and furnished excellent music, which added greatly to the other pleasures of the evening. We wish to take advantage of this opportunity to thank each member of the band.

The visitors present were: Misses Alma Eken, Eneska Hunter, Lillie McPhail, Annie McPhail, Sadie McPhail, Lila Stribling, Leize Stribling, Alice Stribling, from Pendleton; Misses Willie Cherry, Mary Hunter, from Seneca; Misses Nannie Young, Minnie Young, Mattie Meredith, from Central; Misses Valeria Waits, Ploma Tannery, from Westminster; Miss Dora Smith, from Knoxville, Tenn.; Mrs. Gwinn, from Lenoir, N. C.; Mrs. Thatch, of Auburn, Ala.

Everything was done to make the stay pleasant, and the boys appreciate the excellent and courteous treatment by the Tech Manager. The officials were fair and there were very few protests. In the 100 yd. dash, a Tech man was picked for second place. This mistake was corrected by the judges, but the official scorer was not notified of the change so the (Tiny) Grier ran in the first score on a wild throw by Wannamaker, and W. P. Grier came in on a squeeze play.

In the eighth inning, things began to brighten for the Tigers, when Lee got to second base with no men down. But as luck would have, it the next ball was knocked to the shortstop, who caught Lee between second and third.

During the last inning, Latimer did the twirling for Clemson. Brownlee, who had worked his way to third, came in home on another squeeze play, making the third score for Erskine. Clemson failed to retrieve her loss in the ninth inning, thus leaving the final score: Erskine 3, Clemson 1.
